THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE

WHERE IT PAYS TO TRADE

"Assassin" Causes Trouble.
 SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Because billboards advertising the Lusitania show at the exposition used the term "assassin" in describing the German submarine which sank the vessel, the big fair has a war on its hands.

German Consul says demands that the objectionable word be eliminated or the concession closed. Germans have been called for a mass meeting in the German house to discuss the situation further.

Lloyd-George Urges Loyalty.
 BRISTOL, England, Sept. 11.—Addressing the trades union conference

here, Minister of Munitions David Lloyd-George said:
 "Our machinery must work day and night producing war material. It might mean a difference between defeat and victory."
 "Eighty thousand skilled workmen and 200,000 unskilled men and women are needed."

Lloyd-George attributed the German success in Poland to the loyalty of all classes of Germany's workmen.

Explosion Kills One.
 PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 11.—One person was killed and several were injured in an explosion at the plant of the Western Powder company at Edwards, 15 miles from here. Scores of windows were broken in Peoria as a result of the explosion.

Germany Apologizes for Attack.
 AMSTERDAM, Sept. 11.—Official German expressions of regret were received in Holland for an aerial attack on March 29 on the Dutch trawler Hibernia. The German foreign office declared the attack was unintentional.

Big Fire at Wasco.
 WASCO, Ore., Sept. 11.—Fire last night destroyed the garage of Alwood & Lee, together with 17 automobiles, and the blacksmith shop of Frank Morrow.

Court Martial Ordered.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The war department today ordered Colonel Goodier of the judge advocate's office, Pacific coast division, court-martialed on charges of conduct prejudicial to the service.

Explained.
 Applicant—Are you married?
 Applicant—No, ma'am; I bumped into a door.—Dundee People's Journal.

At the close of the year 1913 the total amount standing to the credit of depositors on the British postoffice savings bank account was more than $300,000,000.

NOTICE

Mrs. Charles A. Virpillat and daughter, Mayfan, have returned from La Grande, where the latter underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Myrick will leave in a few days by auto for Astoria by way of the Columbia highway.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rose of Odessa, Missouri, are visiting at the home of Mr. Rose's brother, J. D. Rose, on McKay creek, while en route to the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Rallsback, who are motoring to Pullman, Wash., were over Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willard White, 504 West Court street.

The opening of school day means the quickening of the social life in Pendleton. Student activities always form a very notable part of the winter society what with the formal class and club functions and the many informal gatherings on weekend nights.

For the benefit of the Round-up band, a dancing party will be given this evening in Moose Hall. The band boys have given many dancing parties in the past and all have proved highly enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Richardson, who recently moved here from La Grande, enjoyed a Sunday visit from their son, Harley Richardson. He returned to La Grande this morning.

Miss Eva Martin of Sacramento, California, is a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. T. Richardson.

A leading event of the week and one that will doubtless be attended by a large number of people will be the song recital to be given tomorrow evening in the Christian church by Miss Doris Reber, who has just returned from a year in Chicago. Miss Reber is a mezzo soprano and her voice has unusual power and sweetness of tone. The concert will be given for the benefit of the church.

Mrs. D. W. Jackson arrived home yesterday from Portland where she had been for a short visit.

Mrs. J. A. Smith left yesterday for Spokane to attend the fair there and to visit her son, George Campbell, formerly of Pendleton.

The public library was the scene of a large gathering yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to listen to a specially prepared Victrola concert. More than thirty beautiful selections were given on the electric instrument and all proved highly enjoyable. These Sunday afternoon concerts at the library are proving quite popular and will be continued through the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Taylor left yesterday for San Francisco and other California points. They will attend the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows which convenes on the twentieth of the month.

Another event of the week will be the wedding of Miss Edith Raley and Lester Hurst which will be celebrated Wednesday evening. The wedding is to be followed by a reception to which a large number of friends have been invited.

Miss Iva Black will entertain the members of the Fredda Seagrus Kei this evening at her home, 301 Lewis street.

A delightful baby party was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Bonney on North Main street, the occasion being the second birthday of her little son, Stephen Conklin Bonney. More than twenty little folks with their mothers were
